The 6 Bedroom Apartment

Why should I choose this room?

If you are looking for value for money, this room is for you! This room provides you with the privacy of your own bedroom and study desk, whilst living with five other students.

This apartment is great for social butterflies who always like to be around other people. Sharing an apartment with five other students means you will have the opportunity to meet a whole group of new people (or live with a group of old friends) and there will always be someone around to hang out with, which is what student living is all about.

If you are looking for a little extra space and natural light, we also have a few 6 Bedroom Apartments with terraces – perfect for chilling outside during the summer months!

Not what you're looking for?

If sharing a space with five other students sounds like a bit much to you, but you are still looking for a low-cost option, check out our Twin Studio room. This option has all the features of a studio but is made to be shared between two people.

If you like the sound of living with a lot of other students, but would also like your own bathroom, look no further than our 5 Bedroom Ensuite apartments. Each student gets their own bathroom with toilet and shower, but still lives in a social apartment with four other students.
